MAUA BANK,

101—103 CALLE CANGALLO

The Offices of this Bank having been removed to the above spacious building, in order to suit the increasing flow of business, the public is informed that the following transactions are carried on in currency and specie in this Bank:—

First—Bills and obligations with good signatures are discounted on conventional terms.

Second—Money is advanced on mercantile and other securities approved of by the Manager.

Third—Accounts current are opened with Merchants or other parties who may prefer depositing endorsed and transferable securities, against which they may draw up to an amount previously convened under conditions established for such class of operations.

Fourth—Money is received in account current bearing interest from day of deposit, which is accumulated in favor of the parties every three months, the depositors being allowed to retire at any time, by means of checques, part or the full amount at their wish, save when the quantity exceeds three hundred doubloons or one hundred thousand dollars currency in which case forty-eight hours' previous notice is required to be given at the Treasury of the Bank.

Fifth—Bills or letters of credit are drawn and taken on Montevideo, Rosario, Sta Fé, Saito Oriental, Paysandu, Rio Janeiro, and other places in the Brazils, England and France, as also on other places, of which notice will be given hereafter.

Finally, the Bank undertakes and executes all legitimate transactions within the orbit of banking operations.

The establishment is always open from 10 a.m. till 3 p.m.

LOUDET,

PHOTOGRAPHER,
344—CALLE PIEDAD—344.
Mons. LOUDET,

Begs to inform the Public of Buenos Ayres and the Argentine Republic, that he continues to take Photographs for the Carte de Visite, full length, and in every other style.

Mons. Loudet visited the Great Exhibition of Paris in 1867, in order to make himself, thoroughly and practically acquainted with every improvement in the above important art; and, since his return from Europe, he has placed his Establishment on precisely the same footing as those of the first Photographers in Paris, London, and the principal cities of Europe. The Apparatus, has been selected from the most approved of these in the Paris Exhibition, several of the inventions having received Prize Medals, among which may be mentioned those of Dallmeyer, of Loudon, &c.

Voigtlander e Sohn. The saloons [in which may be included the Atelier] are handsomely furnished and commodious.

Mons. LOUDET feels the most perfect confidence in saying he can produce likenesses in every aspect, infinitely superior to those which have already met with such unbounded approbation from the distinguished Public of Buenos Ayres.

The Public are respectfully invited to inspect the Gallery. 98,fl6

It being an admitted fact, that "Money makes money," the object of LA BIENHECHORA could not be better, since it opens a vast Savings Bank for the surplus or savings of the Public, so that, by the proper employment of these small gains, a moderate capital, or even annuity, may be secured in a short time. By this means a provident, though helpless, family can husband their small means, and, in the end, attain a competency.

It being proved that the accumulation of interest is the most powerful means of augmenting the capital, THE BIENHECHORA DEL PLATA—an Argentine Company, whose only investments are in the country—holds out to Subscribers greater advantages than any other Institution, by reason of all its dealings being in the River Plate, where are current as large interests as in any part of the world.

THE BIENHECHORA DEL PLATA receives Deposits of from Five Patacones per Annum up to any amount in Weekly, Monthly, or Yearly Instalments.

GREEK COLLEGE.

(LITZMAN'S.)

CALLE TACUARI.

The Parents of the Pupils of the above College are requested to take Notice, that on the 15th of July the Direction of the above College will be undertaken by Mrs. C. Brenan and her sister, Miss Colclough, assisted by a large staff of competent Teachers, Mr. Brenan also giving it as much of his attention as will be possible, consistent with the duties of his and Mr. Mulcahy's English College for Young Gentlemen, 135 Calle Suipacha.

Mr. and Mrs. Litzman's departure for Europe has been for some time deferred, owing to the difficulty of meeting with competent parties having the experience necessary to fill satisfactorily so responsible a position.

Mr. and Mrs. Litzman have now much pleasure in introducing and recommending the above parties, they having had for eight years one of the largest and most fashionably attended Boarding and Day School in Manchester.

THE CENSUS.

While we write the census agents are at work all over the city, taking down the name, age, nationality, &c. of the inhabitants. It is not the first time a census has been taken in Buenos Ayres: during the early Spanish regime we read of several, showing at one time a population of 7,500 souls, later on 20,000, and so recent as 1801 the total population of the city and province was ascertained to be 72,000. After the fall of Rosas another census was taken, which resulted in giving the city and province 271,000 souls. In the last 15 years the population has fully doubled itself, chiefly through immigration.

The task is being simultaneously carried out also in the Provinces, and in a few days every inhabitant, with a fixed habitation, throughout the length and breadth of the Republic, will be noted down in the lists. Hitherto we had to guess at the population, approximately, of the interior provinces, for no Census was ever taken since the Spaniards first settled the country. The importance of having accurate statistics, both for the purposes of Government and for general use, was overlooked by every successive administration till the present; and it is a healthy sign that the first occasion on which the authority of President Sarmiento makes itself simultaneously felt in every part of the 14 Provinces should be for a work of peace and progress.

The Commissioners have set about their work in a business-like manner, with a sufficient staff to do it well and speedily. It is likely they will find more difficulty in the camp than in the towns, and the "paisanos" who have suffered so much from conscriptions, frontier service, &c., will rather keep out of the way than offer any facilities for the Census. What interests us most, however, is to have accurate returns for the large towns, and especially for this city. Mr. Coghlan recently made a census of two-thirds of the city, and remarks as follows:

"The populated district of Buenos "Ayres, including the thinly-inhabited outskirts, covers a space of "about 650 manzanas (4⅛ square miles) "which, on the popular estimate, of "200,000 inhabitants, would give an "average of over 46,000 per square "mile, nearly double that of London "or of the average of the eight most "populous English towns, and surpassed only by such cities as Paris, Amsterdam, Liverpool, Glasgow, and "Manchester, whose many-storied "houses are occupied by numerous "families. The census taken by "the Commission shows the population on the area to which it was "extended 486 manzanas to be 31,000 "per square mile, or 20 per cent. over "the average of that of London "(26,045). The annual number of "deaths in Buenos Ayres, as taken "from the returns, may be assumed "as 4,500 from a population, which, "judging from the above, and including outlying districts, cannot exceed "120,000, a rate equal to 37½ per mil. "whilst in London it is only 20."

We are, meantime, inclined to put down the population from 180,000 to 200,000 souls; but if Mr. Coghlan's estimate prove more correct the rate of mortality is certainly enough to alarm the general public.

There are one or two items that we regret the commissioners have not included in their returns; for instance, it seems inexplicable that they omitted asking the religion of the inhabitants, or, in case of foreigners, the number of years they may have resided in the country.

It will be, doubtless, several months before the lists can be arranged and summed up, and we vent ure to predict that the results will surprise everybody. If we were to make a rough guess we should say something like this—Buenos Ayres city has 180,000 souls, of whom one-third are foreigners, and about 40,000 can read and write. The province outside the city has 300,000 souls, of whom one-eighth are foreigners; about 25,000 can read and write. The other thirteen provinces have an aggregate population of 700,000 souls, including 40,000 foreigners; about 35,000 can read and write. This would make a total population of 1,180,000, including 147,500 foreigners, and the number of persons that can read and write will be about 100,000.

There will be, however, no occasion for guessing as soon as the Census is taken. We shall always have a secure guide to follow, and it will be of the utmost utility for at least ten years to come.

MAGELLAN'S MAILS.

LATEST FROM EUROPE.

(Telegrams per Magellan).

Paris, August 23.

The Empress Eugenie and the Prince Imperial left this evening for Corsica, and will return on the 2nd September.

Madrid, August 23.

The Regent arrived yesterday, and shortly after his arrival a Council of Ministers was held on the prelate question.

The 'Gaceta' confirms the news of the defeat of the Carlist forces under Galuido and Rochez: in consequence of their defeat the insurrection is now considered at an end.

The Government has ordered some of the troops that were ordered to scour the country in search of Carlist bands to return to their quarters.

Marshal Mendez Nuñez died on the 21st, at 5 p.m. The funeral obsequies decreed in his honor were celebrated to-day in Madrid. The Regent, Ministers, French Ambassador, and various deputations were present.

Madrid, 24th.

The rumour that the French troops are about to evacuate Roman territory is believed to be without foundation.

The 'Gazette' says that the report of the reappearance of Carlist band in La Mancha, commanded by Saboriegos wants confirmation.

Paris, 25th.

The 'Constitutionel' confirms the news of the suspension of the military commands.

The Empress Eugenie had arrived at Lyons.

The French prelates had been authorised to assist at the Council.

London, 23rd.

Consols, 93½. Portuguse, 35¼. French, 3 per cent. Rentes, 73-90, 4½ per cents. 104-70.

ENGLAND.

The Speech from the throne read by the Royal Commissioners on the closing of Parliament is characterized by the 'Times' as "simple even to baldness," and is limited to a recapitulation of the events of the session with the exception of a paragraph referring to our foreign relationss in which her Majesty says:—

"That she continues to receive from foreign powers the warmest assurances of friendly dispositions, and confidence in the maintenance and strengthening of peaceful sentiments during the coming year. Negotiations with North America on pending questions have been postponed by mutual consent, and this delay will, it is believed, contribute to the maintenance of friendly relations between both countries.

FRANCE.

The Emperor's departure for Chalons was postponed from the 12th to the 14th, "La France" attributes the delay to a slight indisposition, other pepers state that it was rendered necessary by the ministers not having agreed as to the form in which the amnesty is to be granted.

M. Lesseps has addressed a circular to the heads of commercial houses in Genoa in which he says that the Suez Canal will be open on the 21st November to all vessels, the depth of water being 8 metres. The discussion on the Senatus Consultum has not yet taken place, Monseiur Devien was named chairman of the committee about to report on it.

The debates are expected to be warm, none of the Senators being of accord, and amendments pouring in from all quarters. Marshal Niel is dead, He was the first engineer officer in the Empire, and his death is a great loss for France. The Carlist insurrection has broken down, in Madrid Don Carlos is called "Charles the simple."

The letter said to be addressed by the Comte de Chambord to Don Carlos is believed to be a myth.

SPAIN.

The Carlists have been defeated in Catalonia, Valencia, Alicante, and other parts.

The 'Times' has a leader attributing the ills of Spain to military government and the want of stability in the guarantees of order and public peace. It also says that Spain and North America should come to terms and bring the revolution in Cuba to an end. The adventurers fighting there are only interested in prolonging the struggle, and £20,000,000 paid by the States to Spain for the cession of Cuba would be a sensible help to that country.

The brother of Don Carlos is at Aguas Buenas.

The rumored intention of an anti-clerical demonstration in Madrid on the 15th has been denied.

The French Consul at Barcelona has protested against the shooting of one of the prisoners taken at Monte Alegre as he was a naturalised Frenchman.

THE EAST.

The apprehended breach between Turkey and Egypt is in course of arrangement, owing to the intervention of England and France. The Sublime Porte was on the point of annulling the Viceroy's hereditary rights; but in consequence of the representations of the Great Powers will be satisfied by the Viceroy's coming to Constantinople to make personal explanations.

The Egyptian Government is said to have discovered a conspiracy in Cairo, the object of which was to destroy the Vice-Royalty and place the brother of the present Viceroy in his place, who would immediately be recognised as such by the Sultan.

ITALY.

A Republican Congress convoked by Mazzini will shortly be held in London, at which Menotti and Ricciotti Garibaldi will assist.

The English papers have no faith in the party of action, and call on the President of the Council to take precautionary measures.

In Rome the party of action is also stirring; a plot has been lately discovered by the police and many arrests made.

PORTUGAL.

A stirring speech made in the Chamber of Peers at Lisbon by Don Rebello Da Silva, on the 30th of July, has been copied into all the Portuguese papers. It protests in eloquent terms against a union with Spain. The Speaker said "that Spain and Portugal are brothers, but brothers independent of each other. United to Spain, never! Spaniards, never! God only knows the future fate of Portugal, and He alone is able to save her!

LATEST FROM RIO.

September 10, 1869.

We have just terminated the 47th anniversary of Brazilian independence. The Emperor, Empress, and Princess, accompanied by the great dignitaries of Brazil, attended the Grand Te Deum. The few troops in the city were reviewed in the plaza; the guns from the forts fired at daybreak, at noon, and at sundown, a royal salute.

At the city palace some of the legislators waited upon his Majesty, and one Senator delivered an appropriate address, to which the Emperor graciously replied. At night the Rua do Ouvidor was in a blaze. Two theatres were open. Norton, of the Christy's, took his benefit before a poor house, and thus terminated the Brazilian 4th of July. The Brazilians appear in their customs to be even less English than the Argentines; no grand banquets were attempted, and the 7th of September is, after all, a very small affair compared with the 25th of May fetes in Buenos Ayres: perhaps it is for the better as none of the public moneys are thrown away on fire-crackers, rockets and acrobats. Many foreigners anticipated a great jollification this year on account of the conclusion of the war, but there is very little enthusiasm in the public here. The news from Paraguay no doubt is good, but somehow we note the war is a very sore topic here; the advantages gained are after all insignificant when compared with the tremendous debt saddled upon the country. Brazil has splendid resources, but they will be all taxed to the utmost to save the ship of State. Mr. Paranhos, it is said, has been detained in Asuncion by the special command of the Count d'Eu, who is by no means willing to leave the Paraguayan triumvirate to themselves in a moment so critical.

The Royal Mail steamer left on the 8th crowded with passengers, and taking home very heavy remittances in specie. It appears, besides the gold that came up from the Plate, very large sums have been shipped from here to cover the protested bills of the Greek firm. Several meetings of the creditors have been held; but, as the books are in Greek, it is almost impossible to arrive at a knowledge of the assets. The total liabilities are put down at £120,000, and the brokers think perhaps the estate may give 50 per cent; but the manager has had too many irons in the fire, and has lost heavily in contracts with the Government for the supply of wood. The banks are the heaviest creditors; the managers are, however, not to blame, for they, some months since, wrote home stating that a good deal of this Greek paper was offering, and the home directors, having the fullest confidence in the concern, which in England was thought the safest in Rio directed the managers to continue taking their exchange. This failure has caused a rather uneasy feeling in this market, as it is feared three other houses must follow, but as yet nothing beyond rumor.

Gold ran down here on the 5th inst., when the last news from the war came in; sovereigns sold down to 12$200, but to-day they are stiff at 12$400. No war news has arrived here since the 5th, which has caused much surprise, but a steamer with the news of the capture of Lopez is anxiously looked for, and many parties who dabble in the gold market are speculating on the probability and possibility of this news.

The Pascal sailed on the 7th; she filled up in Santos. Mr. and Mrs. Ackerley, and Mr. Pfeil of Montevideo came out to Tijuca, and spent the only day they had in Rio at Bennett's. The Donati leaves on the 12th for New York; she does not touch at St. Thomas; she has a full cargo, and a number of first and second class passengers. News has arrived here of the loss of the Hamburg steamer; this is a bad beginning for this new line, which has been just started under such promising auspices. The Brazilian transport Guaporé has also run ashore at St. Catherines, but there are hopes of getting her off.

The 'Standard' estimate of the war has caused much notice, and been republished in the papers here. Some of the most prominent Brazilians have asked me where we obtained the figures as to the cost of the war, and the number of men, which they regard as by no means exaggerated. The Brazilian army, it appears, has a register of deaths by sickness alone of 72,000 men.

The Uruguay, one of Lamport and Holt's line, entered yesterday and leaves to-day: she brings a few passengers and a full cargo. But the Magellan has astonished everyone; she made the run out from Liverpool in 14½ days, and leaves this afternoon for the Plate.

Nobody seems to get English papers here except by the regular mail.

The 'Times' of the 26th ult. reports the arrival of the City of Rio Janeiro with some live cattle on board from the Plate. They arrived safe and sound, but in very poor condition; and our London colleague does not seem to think that the business will prove a paying one.

Exchange rules the same, and sovereigns at 12$450. Banks not drawing, private bills, 19¼.

According to the last advices the Count d'Eu will follow on until he rescues all the families or catches Lopez. This is the most official information we have of the war.

MADAME RISTORI IN "ELIZABETH."

We have seldom or perhaps never had the good fortune to witness a dramatic performance of equal merit and histrionic brilliancy with that of Tuesday evening at the Franco-Argentine Theatre. It may be truly said that Madame Ristori, as our Virgin Queen, almost eclipsed herself in the rendering of that most difficult of characters. We must confess that it exceeded even our most sanguine expectations, and afforded us such a treat as is not to be met with in a lifetime of South American experience.

The audience on Tuesday evening seemed electrified, and so thoroughly were they carried away by the genuineness of the part acted, that even to applaud seemed a profanation or intrusion on the royal scene. Madame Ristori's rendering of the varied phases in Elizabeth's eventful career,—now depicting the strongest passions of a haughty sovereign in the zenith of her pride and youth, and again the ruling passion of ambition, dominant above the tender and more gentle feelings, which sooner or later in life influence a woman's heart,—was indeed a triumph of dramatic skill, and proved how thoroughly she merits her title of the "Queen of Tragedy."

The finale of the second act was a grand and soul-stirring scene for Englishmen. The disdain with which she receives the Spanish Ambassador's announcement that his master, Phillip II., had declared war and returned the ribbons of the garter, which she subsequently confers on Drake, and the energy with which she grasps the sword of her father, Henry VIII., discarding the scabbard as the sign of uncompromising wars fare, followed by her enthusiastic oath, sworn with her nobles to defend Old England against the world, was one of the grandest and most effective scenes of the piece.

The third act brought out the great 'tragedienne's powers, and displayed her facility for rapid changes of expression in depicting anger, wounded pride, forgiveness, tenderness, and eventually infuriated rage, demanding Essex's sword, which he breaks across his knee and flings at her feet, and is then led to the Tower by her order, delivered in accents of choking rage.

In the fourth act she was superb in depicting the conflicting feelings of regret and uncertainty, mingled with the haughty pride of an insulted sovereign. When Essex's sentence is brought to her for signature, she displays the most natural and violent emotion, being about to cousign to the executioner her most favored courtier and noblest soldier. After much well sustained irresolution, she tremulously signs the fatal parchment, and almost swoons as her secretary takes it from her hand.

But the fifth and last act, which represents a period some years subsequent to the preceding one was the grand 'chef 'dœuvre' of the evening, and caused well deserved applause. The tottering form of the aged Queen led on by one of her old nobles, and the haggard wasted features in which were depicted remorse and suffering, announced that dissolution was not far distant. Still her iron energy of mind upheld her sinking frame, and her stern commands in the merest trifles are not to be disregarded for a moment. She is left alone in her regal chamber where a couch is prepared for her. Here she divests herself of her crown and jewelled collar, placing them, after a fond embrace, on the ground beside her couch. This scene is most touching and natural, showing her ruling passion in life—ambition and power. After some harrowing reminiscences of her eventful life in which is prominent her remorse and regret for the death of Essex, she falls back exhausted and remain so for a few moments, meanwhile the youthful James Stuart enters the apartment and finding the Queen insensible endeavours to revive her. After a short time she slowly rises in his arms and gazes on his face in bewilderment and dread, eventually she starts back and screams for help calling in her guards and women, pointing to James as a spectre, for in his youthful features she recognizes the likeness to her unhappy cousin Mary Stuart.

Becoming more calm and reassured she embraces him, and reclining on her couch she tells him to had her the jewelled crown lying at her feet. In an affecting speech she declares him to be her successor and King of England and Scotland, placing the crown slowly upon his head. But just at this moment her retainers and guards shout out "Long live King James the first of England and sixth of Scotland." She turns suddenly and snatches the crown from the young King's head, and by a violent effort presses it on her own with her two hands, exclaiming, "No, Elizabeth still lives, and she alone is Queen of England." She clutches still firmer her treasured bauble and falls back exhausted, exclaiming, "Robert—Essex." One moment more and her attendants proclaim her death. The great Elizabeth had passed away for ever.

We consider this piece the greatest triumph of Madame Ristori's repertoire, and trust she will afford the public frequent opportunities of witnessing it. The house was filled as usual to overflowing, and the elite of our Porteña society graced the theatre with their presence.

We have been told that Madame Ristori has engaged the Colon for a series of performances, which, should it prove true, will be welcome news to the many who cannot obtain seats or boxes at the French theatre.

EDITOR'S TABLE.

The news from Europe per Magellan and Savoie is favorable. River Plate produce is steady, and in some instances improving in price. The political intelligence is unimportant.

Madame Ristori appeared on Tuesday evening in the tragedy of 'Elizabeth,' and in none of the great impersonations given by her in this city has she been more successful. The 'virgin queen' was presented to us in every phase of her wonderful character, with a vividness and truth impossible to surpass, if to equal. We give an extended critique in another column.

The census officers commenced their work on Wednesday, but it will certainly require more than three days to ascertain the number of inhabitants in the city, by the mode adopted. The census papers should have been left a month ago at each house; however, we are in for it now, and must make better arrangements next time; first attempts are seldom perfect, even with numerous examples of the 'modus operandi' before us, which we might have profited by.

A disastrous fire, happily unattended with loss of life, broke out on Tuesday morning between 2 and 3 o'clock a.m., on the premises kept as a saloon and boarding house by Mr. Denis Bergin, at the Tigre. The flames originated, it is believed in a lower room, through the ignition or explosion of some kerosene, and quickly spread to the upper part of the house. Mr. Bergin and the rest of the inmates were awakened by Mrs. Bergin, who first discovered the catastrophe. A small quantity of powder exploded in an upper room, blowing in the door of one of the bedrooms. The inmates all escaped, but had to rush forth in their night clothes, one man being pulled literally from the midst of the flames, almost fast asleep. Everything on the premises was destroyed, with the exception of a billiard table and a few chairs. Money in gold to the amount of 14,000 paper dollars was melted and lost, specks of the precious metal being found mixed with the earth in the ruins. One of the sufferers, lately came down from Paraguay, who was stopping in the house, and lost all the clothes which he had obtained on his arrival here from the British Hospital. Mr. Bergin, was insured for about $60,000 m/c., but this amount, we regret to hear, will not cover the loss. It is really miraculous that no lives were lost, as the premises were of timber, and burned like touch-wood.

The Savoie (Bonnemason line) brought 500 passengers for this port.

The port question imbroglio continues. The Executive of the Province has addressed a note, under date of 14th inst., to the National Congress, in which the principal reason for the objection of the Province to Mr. Madero's project seems to be the fact of the contract, with its attendant privileges, being given over to private enterprise, instead of such being retained in the hands of either or both Governments. There may be something in this, but governments are bad contractors, and it seems to us that, no matter which government undertake the task, private enterprise must be appealed to in the end to carry it out.

The Uruguay, of the Astronomical line, arrived in Montevideo yesterday morning. She will be in this port to-day, and will be despatched by Messrs. Boyd on the 21st inst. for Antwerp.

We received yesterday a communication, which we will publish to-morrow, from an influential subscriber in Rosario, stating that robberies and murders continue to be perpetrated there with the most alarming frequency and impunity, in fact, a state of complete social anarchy and disorder prevails. We must again call the serious attention of Government to this fact. Some strong and vigorous measures must be at once adopted, or Rosario and its environs will soon be uninhabitable,

We have received letters in strong approval of the remarks we lately felt bound to make respecting the ridiculous practice of presenting wreaths and bouquets to men on the stage as a mark of public approval. We hope our colleagues will aid us in putting down this silly custom; indeed, we trust some of our leading actors will show the way themselves, by refusing the doubtful tribute for the future. We should also like to see the European custom of throwing bouquets from the boxes to actresses introduced, as it is much more gratifying to the fair players, and leaves no room for doubt as to where the offering comes from, a primary objection to the present mode of presenting them through the employés of the theatre.

Sheepskins continue to rise; $170 was paid early yesterday in the Once for export to North America, and there is every probability of their going to $200, if not higher. This price is equivalent at a very low estimate to $15 per very ordinary sheep, independent of the grease, and should these prices for skins continue, we will have still more extensive killing. We publish in our exchange report a few of the most important extracts from a letter to Messrs. Montiflore and Co. from their correspondent at Sydney, bearing on the wool question; it is of great value to our estancieros. The advices per Magellan indicate increased tendency to improvement in the prices of our produce.

Letters from Asuncion represent the allies as brought to a temporary halt in consequence of the supply of beasts for food and transport purposes running short. Lopez is said to be still at San Estanislaus, and is believed to be fortifying his position there. Deserters state that his men are reduced to the extremity of hunger and nakedness. The want of meat for the army is attributed to the number of animals that had to be slaughtered to supply the fugitive families with food. The Independence Day of Brazil was marked by great rejoicings at Asuncion; a banquet was given by Señor Paranhos, at which all the notabilities in the city were present. Col Paranhos, brother to the Minister, has been appointed to the command of the department of Caraguatay.

There was a large attendance at the funeral service for the eternal rest of the late Dr. Valentin Alsina on Wednesday, although the weather was most unfavourable.

We received yesterday from a subscriber at Chascomus some lines of poetry with the heading, "Hurrah for the Camp." The "Standard" has always been ready to respond to this cry, and now that things seem to be taking a turn more so than ever, we regret not having a 'Poets Corner' on to-morrow for the especial benefit of our Chascomus friend, but our space is so limited we are unable to publish it.

Our influential contemporary, the "Tribuna," advocates the introduction of a new feature into our public amusements here, viz., regattas. We should very much like to see the excellent suggestion acted on, if our river will permit of it, for it is hard to imagine anything more dreary and utterly devoid of amusing features than a Buenos Ayrean fête as at present constituted. Rockets and a military band, with a few flags and lamps at night, is the highest effort we seem capable of. Let us have on the next occasion of a fete a few good tussles between the boats of the ships in port by way of a beginning. We may come to gigs and yachts in due time. Quien sabe?

One of the greatest successes of the season was attained by the French Company of the Bouffes by the production on Wednesday of the 'Courrier de Lyons.' The well-established celebrity of this interesting drama had attracted to the theatre a concourse of people almost as great as that with which the magic name of Ristori fills every night every seat of the Argentine Theatre. The artists who took part in Wednesday night's performance, although all well known to our public displayed artistic merits hitherto unknown. Pontis, Hollard, Rosier and all, impersonated their different characters with a truthfulness and originality that drew upon them the enthusiastic plaudits of the crowded audience, and it would be invidious and difficult to signal out any one in particular, since all were excellent. Great credit is also due to the manager for the telling way in which the drama, on the whole, is got up. We are reluctantly obliged to hold over until our next issue a fuller critique of this performance; but, in the meantime, we can confidently express the anticipation that whenever it is repeated, a full house will testify to the very favorable impression produced on the public by the 'Courrier de Lyons.'

An English gentleman is anxious to get two or three countrymen to accompany him on an overland pleasure-trip to Chile. Application can be made at our office.

Mr. Perkins, formerly of Rosario, writes to us from Lausanne, Switzerland, that he is getting ready 150 families of respectable Swiss agriculturists for the lands of the Central Argentine Railway. He adds that he has already set a current flowing from England, and he expects before six months to revisit the sunny shores of La Plata. Such men as Mr. Perkins are worth more than plenipotentiares for young countries like ours.

We have to welcome an old friend and zealous laborer in the cause of immigration in the person of Mr. Charles Beck, who has just arrived from Europe. Mr. Beck is too well known as Argentine Consul and Emigration agent in Switzerland to need any introduction in Buenos Ayres. His connection with the prosperous Santa Fé colonies (for he was founder of that of San Carlos) is a double title to public confidence, and we hope President Sarmiento and the various provincial governors will give him every encouragement in his efforts for emigration.

To-day is the fifth anniversary of the battle of Pavon.

BUENOS AYRES BRITISH CLERKS' PROVIDENT ASSOCIATION.

The annual meeting of the above Association was held on the evening of Monday the 6th inst., when a fair number of members attended. The Chair was taken at eight o'clock by Mr. J. L. Macrae, who, after explaining the object of the meeting, called upon the Secretary to read the usual Half-Yearly Committee Report, which was as follows:—

REPORT

For the half-year, ending August 31, 1869.

Your Committee have much pleasure, on the completion of this the eighth year of the existence of this Association, in laying before you a statement of its position; and while they have no innovations or great changes to note, they have to congratulate you upon the comparatively flourishing state of its affairs. The principal subjects of interest they have to lay before you are the following:—

On the 28th of February last there were enrolled in the Society 34 members, holding 242 shares. At this date there are 35 members, holding 236 shares; showing an increase of one member, but a decrease of six shares. Five members retired during that period, holding 51 shares; six were admitted, holding 15 shares; three augmented their shares by 30, making 45.

The above number of shares are divided amongst the shareholders as follows:—

1	member holds 20	shares,	20
2	members hold 15	"	30
1	member holds 12	"	12
1	" " 11	"	11
10	members hold 10	"	100
3	" " 5	"	15
6	" " 4	"	24
2	" " 3	"	6
9	" " 2	"	18
35			236

At this time last year there were 28 members, holding 186 shares; showing an increase since then of seven members and fifty shares.

It may be remarked that the diminution of six shares as compared with the last half-yearly statement has been caused by the retirement of one of the largest shareholders.

Your Committee are happy to be able to inform you that several parties have intimated their intention of immediately becoming members, and also that several of the existing shareholders have expressed their determination to augment the number of their present shares, thereby affording a gratifying proof to your Committee of the increasing confidence in and usefulness of the institution. The following is copy of the Balance Sheet, which has been duly audited in conformity with Rule VIII.:—

Dr.		Cr.
To Cash Ac.	$ 9,511 4	By Share Ledger Ac.	$223,956
Bills receivable	191,500	Interest Account	2,382 4
London & R. P. Bank	33,887
Membs' Loan Account	.....
	$226,338 4		$226,338 4

As customary, your committee beg to add to the above a few explanatory remarks:—

Cash Account—This account is to be held by the treasurer.

Bills Receivable—The amount at the debit of this account represents the funds of the Association at present employed on bills discounted, in which your committee has every confidence.

London and River Plate Bank—This amount stands to our credit in account current, it may, perhaps, be considered large, but the greater part of it has only been so invested for a few days, and is required to pay off retiring members, and make some advances.

Members' Loan Account has been balanced off by transfer to share ledger account, 9 members availed themselves of this account during the half-year to the extent of $33,400 m|c., interest on which was charged at the rate of allotment.

Share Ledger Account—The amount at the credit of this account represents the total capital of the Association.

Interest Account—This balance is for interest on bills discounted not yet due, and which pertains to next half-year.

For the half-year interest has been allotted at the rate of 10 per cent. per annum, which, considering the low rates ruling during that period cannot but be considered satisfactory. Your committee has never for a moment lost sight of the fundamental principal of security in their transactions, and it is in great part due to the exertions of your treasurer that such a satisfactory rate of interest has been obtained.

Your Committee, in conclusion, would beg to state that there is still a wide field open to their successors for extending the benefits of the institution, and while the various members composing it, now retiring from office, pledge themselves to use their best exertions to that end, they would express a hope that the committee you have now to elect may relax no efforts to still further extend its sphere of usefulness:

J. L. MACRAE,
President.
H. W. LOCHORE,
Hon. Sec.

The above report was considered highly satisfactory, and was unanimously adopted by the meeting. As customary at the annual meeting of the Association, the members now proceeded to elect a president and committee of management for the ensuing twelve months. The voting resulted in the election of Mr. Junius W. Dominick for the post of president, and of Messrs. Macrae, Lochore, Pasman, Turner, Nuttall, and Rankin, to form the committee, with Messrs. Goden and Honeyman as substitutes for same. The election for auditors was next proceeded with, and Messrs. Sutor and Murray were named to fill these important positions, with Messrs Perkins and Heald as substitutes. The usual business having been thus satisfactorily disposed of, a vote of thanks to the retiring committee was proposed by Mr. Honeyman, seconded by Mr. Roger, and carried 'nem con.' Special votes of thanks to the retiring president and secretary for their long and faithful services were proposed, seconded, and unanimously carried.

Proposed by Mr. Macrae, and seconded by Mr. Goden, that the best thanks of the Association be tendered to the Messrs. Mulhall for their kindness in publishing gratis in the 'Standard' all notices and documents, and otherwise publicly furthering the interests of the Association—carried unanimously.

Mr. Nuttall then proposed, and Mr. Pasman seconded, a vote of thanks to the committee of the Buenos Ayres British Library for the use of their rooms for the purposes of the Association—carried unanimously.

We heartily wish success to this very deserving institution, and hope to have many more reports still more satisfactory than the above to publish in our columns.—EDITORS.

MURDER IN SAN PEDRO.

[Communicated.]

Each time that it becomes our sad duty to record a case of assassination, we fondly indulge in the hope that we may be spared the repetition of such melancholy news for a long time. We take into consideration that we are living in a young but progressive country, which has passed through the various phases of semi-civilisation, and has at length arrived at the dawn of social security.

The great and deep interest we feel in this, the land of our adoption, often forces us to believe that these melancholy murders must cease, vanish, in fact, in the face of that enlightened and progressive rule which has been installed within the last few years. But, alas! our assumed felicity is very temporary indeed, as the ink which recorded the Capilla tragedy is scarcely dry ere we are again called on to publish the details of as cold blooded a murder as we can well remember. Almost every resident of San Pedro was well acquainted with the present unfortunate victim; hence we can be faithfully corroborated in saying that a more harmless or inoffensive man has seldom fallen a prey to the gaucho's knife.

Mr. Henry Ford has been a resident of the above district for many years, and for some few months had been almost constantly living in the town of San Pedro. He has had no dispute or quarrel with anyone that can be heard of, being a singularly quiet man, nor had he made any enemies, being on the contrary well liked by everybody. Yet, strange to say, he was found in the streets of San Pedro on the morning of the 1st inst., with no less than 18 stabs on his person, besides some heavy cuts on the temple, having been dead evidently for some hours. He had been in friendly chat at a fonda in the town the night previous, and must have been assassinated very soon after, being found not far off. The surprise amongst both natives and foreigners is great, as none can imagine what cause there has been for such butchery, except that love of blood spilling, which is so characteristic of the drunken gaucho. One of this wretched class, having publicly boasted that he knew all about it, and "had still steel enough for fifty 'gringos' more," was at once apprehended. Shortly after, it appears, the authorities got some information, which caused the arrest of two others, the three being sent in irons to San Nicolas, where, we suppose (even if guilty,) they will be detained a few months, and then kindly allowed to return to the bosom of their tender (?) families, to rob and murder 'ad libitum,' as usual.

When, may we ask, will the law be allowed to take its course, as in all civilised countries? When will cold blooded murderers receive the fate which they bestow on their fellow creatures? Or, may we ask, are we to be daily recording these human sacrifices, without even the satisfaction of seeing the assassin publicly shot? We are aware that it is both the fashion and policy of the Buenos Ayres press in general to ignore the existence of such a state of affairs. We do not for a moment wish our foreign readers to believe that this is a country of bloodshed and murder: on the contrary, we can, happily, testify to the peaceful state of the country in general, but that is no reason why we should omit to do all in our power to put down murder.

It has ever been, and ever will be, the policy of the "Standard" to give all possible publicity to any crime which may affect the well being of the Republic at large. We shall continue to demand the safe keeping of robbers, and the public execution of murderers. Nothing shall make us swerve from this point, and in adding the name of Ford to a long list of victims, we again call on the authorities to use that power which the law provides, by which robbery and murder may be eventually stamped out.

The sales to-day were: for cash, 6,600 at 63½-¾; for Saturday, 10,000 at 63¾; for the 30th, 385,000, opening at 63½, rising to 64 and closing at 63¾: for the end of October, 30,000 at 62¾ and 63; and for the end of the year, 30,000 at 63½, 62, and 63¾.

Another large transaction has occurred in Argentine Bank shares, 100 being sold at 6 per cent. premium.

The news for produce, by the Magellan, is more encouraging, and we may expect some slight improvement in wool. The political news is unimportant. The Uruguay arrived to-day at Montevideo, but her news has been considerably anticipated by the Magellan. The City of Buenos Ayres leaves to-morrow for Antwerp and London; she is now commanded by Capt. Haddock, an old friend in these waters. The date of sailing of the Uruguay is fixed for Tuesday 21st inst.

By latest advices received from our brother editor who is in Rio, we are happy to say that the assets of the bankrupt firm of Rodocanachi promise to give much more than was anticipated. A meeting of creditors was held on the 10th inst., and after making great deductions, the assignees report the estate good for at least 80 per cent., and if a little time be allowed perhaps he will pay in full. Some of the creditors are River Plate firms, and we notice that one Buenos Ayres house figures for £8,000 stg. Gold was in demand in Rio on the sailing of the Magellan. Sovereigns 12,480. In Exchange none of the banks drawing, but good private paper at 19½. It is presumed in Rio that the war must last until the close of the year.

The bankruptcy of Juan Sturla, almacenero is in the hands of D. Angel Croza, Juez Comisario and Mr. William Paats, 'sindico': the liabilities amount to $1,579,273; and the assets are returned at $1,975,721 m|c., but it is feared some of the latter will not be recoverable.

The 'British Trade Journal' says that the wool clip for Australia this year will show a great falling-off, especially in Victoria, New South Wales and Queensland, where the mortality in sheep has averaged 50 per cent. This year the falling-off will be 30 or 40 thousand bales, and next year the diminution will be still more notable. Messrs. Montefiore and Joseph write that the farmers intend melting down most of their flocks.

The Montevideo telegrams have the following—

"Wednesday, 15th.

"Paper, 88½; few operations. Rainy. 7,000 American hides at 60, gold, despatched; 15,000 Entre Rios hides, supposed price 60½, gold, despatched. Little or no stock."

"Thursday, 16th.

SO INSIDIOUS ARE THE FIRST approaches of Consumption that thousands remain unconscious of its presence until it has brought them to the verge of the grave. An immediate resort to Dr. D. Jayne's Expectorant, upon the first appearance of the Cough Pain, or Soreness of the Throat or Chest, would very generally preclude a fatal result, or, in case the symptoms indicate the presence of Latent Consumption, would tend to subdue the violence of the disease, and thus materially assist in prolonging the life of the patient. Use the Expectorant therefore when you take a Cold, and thus prevent the necessity for its use in more dangerous complaints. Sold everywhere.

THE ISLAND OF BIMINI.—The followers of Columbus traversed many a weary league of ocean in search of this fabulous island, in which they fancied the Fountain of Eternal Youth existed. One of them discovered, instead of it, the peninsula of Florida, and pronounced it an earthly paradise. From this floral Eden are derived the fragrant basis of the finest perfume in the world, Murray and Lanman's Florida Water. The refined taste of the ladies of this country has never been more clearly exhibited than in their preference for the article in question. It has to a great extent suspended all the once fashionable European perfumes. Nothing of its kind can compete with it in this market. As there are counterfeits always ask for the Florida Water, prepared by Lanman and Kemp, New York.

30—RIVADAVIA—30

PALMAM QUI MERUIT FERAT.

PENEDOS VEGETABLE SYRUP.

THE MOST CERTAIN AND SPEEDY REMEDY EVER DISCOVERED FOR ALL DISORDERS OF THE CHEST, ASTHMA AND CONSUMPTION.

No other diseases sweep away so many thousands as ASTHMA and CONSUMPTION, and not because of any want of means of checking them, on their first approach if those attacked would adopt proper remedies early, but, unfortunately, these are neglected, and recourse is not had until the disease is firmly established in the Lungs, from whence (until lately) Physicians had not discovered any means of dislodging it. Professor Penedo's Syrup supplies now that DESIDERATUM to sufferers, as the rapidly extending fame of this Preparation testifies it.

COLDS, PAIN IN THE CHEST, SHORTNESS OF BREATH, PHLEGM, AND INFLUENZA.

A difficulty of breathing, or a sense of tightness or pain in THE CHEST after exertion, a cough or an expectoration of phlegm, however slight at first, will surely prove the germ from which one or other fatal diseases will take their rise, if not early removed, in such cases, must be taken three times a-day, as directed, or oftener, according to the urgency of the symptoms, and this will be found sufficient for the cure of all recent affections of the Lungs.

COUGHS.

This severe and most dangerous disease very frequently becomes most troublesome, which, if not ending in Consumption or Asthma, proves most distressing and weakening up to the patient.

PENEDO'S VEGETABLE SYRUP

should be taken until it is entirely removed, which it will speedily do if taken regularly.

WEAKNESS OF THE VOICE AND HOARSENESS.

In all cases where the diseases have occurred suddenly from Colds, exertion of the Voice, &c.

PENEDO'S VEGETAALE SYRUP

has been most successful in effecting a radical cure in cases which have existed many months.

PENEDO'S VEGETABLE SYRUP

is of the highest utility in all diseases of the Chest and Lungs. This fact is proved by the many testimonials handed to the Proprietor by men of acknowledged ability and reputation.

The following certificate is one of many that have been received by the Professor:—

Rio Janeiro, May 1, 1869.
Professor Penedo.

Dear Sir,

I feel bound to acknowledge the marvellous results effected by the Syrup, called

"VEGETABLE DE PENEDO,"

In the Province of Rio Grande, and it is, in my opinion, a most valuable medicine in all cases of Pulmonic Affections or Diseases of the Chest, many of my patients, who have had occasion to use your Specific for these complaints, have assured me that they invariably derived the greatest benefit from it.

SAVINGS BANK
BANK MAUA AND Co.
101--Cangallo--103
BUENOS AYRES.

The immense advantages of Accounts Current are now so generally felt and appreciated in the two great emporiums of the River Plate, Montevideo and Buenos Ayres, that there are very few Merchants who fail to keep one at the bank in which they place the most confidence.

The Bank of Mauá & Co. in Montevideo has already provided for the working classes in that city a safe and profitable depositary for their savings.

The sums deposited in that very important institution are daily increasing, and already reach a very large amount.

These advantages have not hitherto been enjoyed in this city by an immense number of clerks artisans, working men, and servants of all classes and conditions, who are equally interested in putting their savings out at interest, thus providing themselves with a reserve fund in case of need, sickness, or old age, instead of spending them in the immoral gambling. in lotteries, and other frivolities.

The Bank of Mauá & Co. of this city, following the noble example of their firm in Montevideo, now offer the same facilities in this city, and has opened a Savings Bank at No 103 Calle Cangallo from Nine a.m. till Three p.m. every day, for the reception of the savings of the classes already mentioned, Sundays and holidays excepted.

The Bank will deliver to each depositors a pass book, in which will be entered the amount deposited and withdrawn.

The depositor is permitted at any time to withdraw the whole or part of the sum deposited; in the former case the interes will be calculated up to date.

The Bank of Mauá & Co. is sufficiently known to the Public by the benefit derived from the course of its operations, which are regulated on the strictest and soundest principles, and always directed to promote the general welfare.

The Bank of Mauá & Co. are also persuaded that this new branch of their business will render immense service to the working classes of Buenos Ayres and its neighborhood.

Buenos Ayres, 2nd January, 1867.

P. P. MAUA & Co.,

M. A. DE FREITAS AMORIM.

CONDITIONS

First—The Bank receives at interest any sum from Twenty-five Dollars currency or one Silver Dollar upwards.

Second—The interest allowed is six per cent. (6 p.%) her annum, which is liquidated every six months.

Third—The depositors can at any time retire the whole or part of the money deposited.

Fourt—Once the money deposited exceeds weny-five thousand dollars currency, or one thousand dollars silver. the depositor, if he wished can open an account current, according to the rules established by the Bank.

Fifth | In case the depositor loses his pass book it can be replaced by another on paying twelve dollars currency, and advertising the loss in the public newspapers.

BISHOP'S GRANULAR EFFERVESCENT CITRATE OF MAGNESIA, Introduced and prepared by ALFRED BISHOP,
Manufacturing Chemist;
17 & 18 SPECK'S FIELDS, MILE END NEW TOWN, LONDON.

This perfectly white and delicately clean granulated preparation possesses remarkable effervescent qualities, and far surpasses the ordinary Seidlitz Powder in its cooling, refreshing, and mild aperient properties, as well as in its flavor: as a saline draught. It is particularly well adapted for women and young children, on account of its most agreeable flavor and mild effect.

N.B. The genuine has the name of BISHOP upon the Bottle, also the Name and Trade Mark upon the Label, and is sold in convenient sizes, and secured in so perfect a manner that it may be shipped with safety to any part of the world.

Manufacturer also of Granulated and Effervescent Carbonate of Iron, Citrate of Iron Citrate of Quinine, Citrate of Quinine and Iron Carbonate of Lithia in Tubes, Citrate of Lithia, Vichy Salt, Seidlitz Mixture, and all other Granulated Preparations.

IN CHANCERY.—CAUTION.—BISHOP'S GRANULAR EFFERVESCENT CITATE OF MAGNESIA.—Mr. Bishop, having discovered that the Label which he has used for the last five years was being imitated, recently applied to the Court of Chancery for an Injunction to restrain such imitation. The Injunction was immediately granted, and the Defendant was ordered to pay all Mr. Bishop's Costs and destroy the Labels complained of.

BREAKFAST—A SUCCESSFUL EXPERIMENT.

The 'Civil Service Gazette' has the following interesting remarks:—"There are very few simple articles of food which can boast so many valuable and important dietary properties as cocoa' While acting on the nerves as a gentle stimulant it provides the body with some of the purest elements of nutrition, and at the same time corrects and invigorates the action of the digestive organs. These beneficial effects depend in a great measure upon the manner of its preparation, but of late years such close attention has been given to the growth and treatment of cocoa, that there is no difficulty in securing it with every useful quality fully developed. The singular success which Mr. Epps attained by his homœopathic preparation of cocoa has never been surpassed by any experimentalist. Far and wide the reputation of Epp's Cocoa has spread by the simple force of its own extraordinary merits. Medical men of all shades of opinion have agreed in recommending it as the safest and most benficial article of diet for persons of weak constitutions, This superiority of a particular mode of preparation over all others is a remarkable proof of the great results to be obtained from little causes. By a thorough knowledge of the natural laws which govern the operations of digestion and nutrition, and by a careful application of the fine properties of well-selected cocoa, Mr. Epps has provided our breakfast tables with a delicately flavored beverage, which may save us many heavy doctor's bills. It is by the judicious use of such articles of diet that a constitution may be gradually built up until strong enough to resist every tendency to disease. Hundreds of subtle maladies are floating around us, ready to attack wherever there is a weak point. We may escape many a fatal shaft by keeping ourselves well fortified with pure blood and properly nourished system. 85; 36p, f,jy1869

THE PERFECTION OF PREPARED COCOA
Maravilla Cocoa.
Sole Proprietors,
TAYLOR, BROTHERS, London.

The Cocoa [or Cacao] of Maravilla, is the true Theobroma of Linnæus. Cocoa is indigenous to South America, of which Maravilla is a favored portion. Taylor Brothers having secured the exclusive supply of this unrivalled Cocoa, have, by the skilful application of their soluble principle and elaborate machinery, produced what is so undeniably the perfection of prepared Cocoa, that it has not only secured the preference of homœpaths and cocoa-drinkers generally, but many who had hitherto not found any preparation to suit them, have, after one trial, adopted the Maravilla Cocoa as their constant beverage for breakfast, luncheon, &c.

"A SUCCESS UNPRECEDENTED,"
See following Extract from the 'Globe' of May 14, 1868:—

"Various importers and manufacturers have attempted to attain a reputation for their prepared Cocoas, but we doubt whether any thorough success had been achieved until Messrs. Taylor Brothers discovered the extraordinary quality of 'Maravilla' Cocoa. Adopting their perfect system of preparation to this finest of all species of the Theobroma, they have produced an article which supersedes every other Cocoa in the market. Entire solubility, a delicate aroma, and a rare concentration of the purest elements of nutrition, distinguish the Maravilla Cocoa above all others. For Homœpaths and invalids we could not recommend a more agreeable or valuable beverage.

Sold in packets only be all Grocers, of whom also may be had Taylor Brothers' Original Homœpathic Cocoa and Soluble Chocolate.

The Times, of India, states "that the discovery of D. J. COLLIS BROWNE'S CHLORODYNE is a greater blessing to the human race than even 'the discovery of Vaccination.' This remedy is invaluable in the above diseases and is indispensable to Emigrants. Travellers and Families, a few doses being generally sufficient.

Dr. J. COLLIS BROWNE'S CHLORODYNE.—The Right Hon. Earl Russell communicated to the College of Physicians and J. T. Davenport, that he had received information to the effect that the only remedy of any service in Cholera was Chlorodyne.—See Lancet, December 31, 1864.

Dr. J. COLLIS BROWNE'S CHLORODYNE.—Extract from Medical Times, January 12, 1866:—"Is prescribed by scores of orthodox medical practitioners. Of course it would not be thus singularly popular did it not 'supply a want and fill a place.'"

Dr. J. COLLIS BROWNE'S CHLORODYNE is the most certain remedy in Coughs, Colds, Asthma, Consumption, Neuralgia, Rheumatism, &c.

From A. Montgomery, Esq., late Inspector of Hospitals, Bombay:—"Chlorodyne is a most valuable remedy in Neuralgia, Asthma, and Dysentery. To it I fairly owe my restoration to health after eighteen months' severe suffering, and when all other medicines had failed."

It is necessary to warn the public against spurious imitations, which only bear the pirated name, and are deficient of the true properties of the only genuine, viz.:—Dr. J. COLLIS BROWNE'S, as was proved before Vice-Chancellor Sir W. P. Wood, in the Court of Chancery, in the case of Brown v. Freeman, when Dr. J. COLLIS BROWNE'S CHLORODYNE. Extract from the General Board of Health, London, as to its efficacy in Cholera:—"So strongly are we convinced of the immense value of this remedy, that we cannot too forcibly urge the necessity of using it in all cases."

the Vice-Chancellor stated "that the whole statement of Freeman was deliberately untrue, and he regretted to say it had been sworn to."

A BOUQUET

VIOLETS and WATER LILIES,

Exhale an exquisite fragrance, agreeable to the most fastidious, but in the Florida Water of Murray and Lanman, it is not to these two floral beauties alone that we are confined; in it we have the full fragrance of a whole bouquet of blooming tropic flowers.

MOSS-ROSE and JASMIN,

Exquisite in their odors, are yet poor by comparison with the clouds of incense that arise from Murray and Lanman's Florida Water, so justly styled "The Queen of Floral Perfumes."

ORANGE FLOWERS and HONEY-SUCKLE,

Delightful in the pure delicacy of their sweet breath, but faint and fading when compared with the refreshing and strengthening perfume of Murray and Lanman's Florida Water

PRIMROSES and HELIOTROPE,

Full of sweet perfume, and agreeable to many, but void of those important hygienic properties which make Murray and Lanman's Florida Water so welcome in the sick-room.

DAISIES and BUTTERCUPS,

Nature's every-day perfumes, exhaling floral incense familiar to us all, but from which we turn eagerly away to the more refined delicacy of fragrance of Murray and Lanman's Florida Water.

LAVENDER and MAGNIOLIAS,

Rich with heavy perfume, but not invigorating nor refreshing, and so sweet that the sense of smell soon cloys, and longs for the simple freshness of Murray and Lanman's Florida Water.

SWEET BRIAR and CLOVER BLOOM.

Bringing memories of country life, and exhaling a perfume pure and delicate, but lacking that uniformity and permanence, so marked a feature in Murray and Lanman's Florida Water

MIGNONETTE and DAFFODILS,

Of poetic celebrity, sweet and pleasant in the perfume, but still only the perfume of single flowers. In Murray and Lanman's Florida Water we have the combined fragrance of more than all these floral beauties. We have the unapproachable richness of the far-off tropic flowers made permanent, and giving justly to this exquisite Toilet-Water the title of

THE EVERLASTING PERFUME.

☞ Purchasers should be careful to ak for the "Florida Water," prepared by "Lanman and Kemp," New York, who are the sole proprietors of the genuine perfume.

For Sale by all respectable Druggists, Perfumers, and Fancy Goods Dealers.

PETER MOLLER'S
(Knight of the Vasa Order.)
PUREST COD LIVER OIL,
Free from disagreeable Smell and Taste.

This celebrated Oil, which is made on an entirely new method, invented by Mr. Peter Moller, of Christiania, is now acknowledged by Faculties and the most eminent Physicians of Europe, to be the best Cod Liver Oil known. It is the only one for which the following Exhibition Medals have been awarded, viz.:—1862 London International Exhibition—The only Medal.

1865 Bergen Royal Society of Norway—The only Gold Medal.

1866 Boulogne International Exhibition—The great Silver Medal.

1867 Paris International Exhibition—The only Silver Medal, heading 27 competitors.

The fact that it is made under the immediate superintendence of Mr. Peter Moller, at his own Manufactories, at the Lofoten Islands, where it is bottled, sealed, and capsuled, is a guarantee, for its genuineness, as well as that it will keep in every climate for years without turning rancid. "A Handbook of the River Plate," by Messrs. M. G. and E. T. Mulhall. the editors of the "Buenos Ayres Standard," gives the most practical and recent account yet furnished of those countries, comprising Buenos Ayres, the Upper Provinces, Banda Oriental, and Paraguay. It contains particulars of the various land grants for European Emigrants, the projects and concessions for public works, the progress and prospects of mining industry, statistics of the foreign population, Customs' duties. moneys, weights, &c., and instructions to emigrants, together with all the leading points most useful to persons contemplating either a business visit or a permanent settlement in these regions.—Times Money Article, June 7th.

All the Buenos Ayrean press have pronounced a most favorable judgment on this book, and we can vouch for the fact, that in respect to the order and arrangement of the materials, there is no book of its kind in South America to be compared to it.—Nacional.

We confess that the "Handbook of the River Plate" is the best book of this kind ever written about these countries.—Deutsche Zeitung.

"Handbook of the River Plate." By M. G. and E. T. Mulhall.—To those who purpose emigrating to the countries lying on the River Plate this book will be found of great value. It is the work of a citizen of Buenos Ayres, and appears to be quite full and trustworthy. The Argentine Republic, Republic of Uruguay, and Paraguay are described, their chief cities, agricultural and other resources, stated, and the chances for immigrants fairly told. The book throughout contains much information of importance. In spite of domestic and foreign wars, it is pleasant to learn that the number of immigrants into the Argentine Confederation increased from 4,658 in 1858 to 23,600 in 1867. The material wealth of the countries is also increasing with rapidity, except, probably, in Paraguay, where the war is waging. Altogether this book gives us a better idea of the River Plate Republics than any other recent publication does.—New York Herald.

Everything relating to the country, and that can satisfy the enthusiasm of the merchant, farmer, politician, or philosopher, is to be found in this work, which we hesitate not to recommend as one of the best that ever appeared in this country, and which, considering the present industrial and intellectual movement, is indispensable, even though it has to be translated.—La Republica.

The book is useful, interesting, and full of information, with commercial and geographical statistics. It is written evidently for the special use of emigrants from England and North America, and will prove of great value to the country by making known in foreign parts the liberal system of our public institutions.—Revista de Buenos Agres.

We have gone through this elaborate compilation with great interest, and certainly whoever desire to make themselves acquainted with Argentine history, whether ancient or modern, have only to study this admirable guide. The amount of information collected is something wonderful. It could only have been accomplished by great labour and at a heavy cost, and, we trust, the public spirit evinced by Messrs. Mulhall will be amply rewarded. To those who contemplate a visit to the River Plate, or a settlement in Argentine territory, the details given in this "Handbook" are invaluable.—London and River Plate Mail.

The Editors of the "Standard" in Buenos Ayres have published in English an excellent 'guide-book' which contains the fullest information about that country, viz., the public institutions, laws, tariffs, banks, historical summary, form of Government, statistics, estancias, &c. For persons either visiting the River Plate, or resident there, this work offers every class of practical and useful information. It is on sale at the English book store, Rua Nova do Carmo. Journal of Lisbon.

I beg you will put down the Government of Entre Rios for 200 copies, and myself for 100, to be distributed gratis among reading-rooms in Europe.—Letter from General Urquiza.

President Sarmiento has taken 100 copies, and sent 50 to the Argentine Minister at Washington, for some of the principal public libraries in the United States.

Every one who has turned over the pages of this work, will join us in appreciating its importance for the advancement of the country Nothing has escaped the intelligent research of the authors.—Nacion Argentina.

The Messrs. Mulhall have rendered a signal service to these countries by a labor like the present, which will make the River Plate better known abroad.—La Tribuna (Montevideo.)

CHEAP EDITION.
(Price 2s 6d.)

A cheap edition, comprising the whole of Section A. and other chapters, with an appendix (the laws of the country) making in all a book of 330 pages, is offered at the above price.

The materials of which it treats, and the known talent of the Authors, are a sufficient guarantee to me of how valuable this book will be to the country.—Letter from the Prime Minister.
